Introduction of the Orchester Deutsche Einheit

The Orchester Deutsche Einheit (ODE) is an unique German symphony orchestra, founded by Christian Fitzner to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the German Unification. ODE's musicians derive either from the Philharmonic Chamber Orchestra of Wernigerode or from diverse German Youth Orchestras, such as the Philharmonic Youth Orchestra from North-Rhine Westphalia, from Saxony, from Lower Saxony etc. The Orchester Deutsche Einheit brings together experienced professional musicians with the elite young musicians both from the united East Germany and West Germany. Among its young musicians, many are winners of renowned national and international music competitions. Because of its unique and unifying features, Kurt Masur has decided to become its patron. The Orchester Deutsche Einheit plays not only famous classical masterpieces, but also contemporary compositions. Its energetic interpretations are appreciated by music lovers and highly praised by experts. Sponsored by the Federal Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Germany, the Orchester Deutsche Einheit is proudly announcing its first visit to China. Ten concerts in different cities will be conducted by Christian Fitzner, presenting both common works from New Year's Eve concert repertoire as well as interesting pieces which have barely been heard in China.
